

If you would like to view this email in a Web browser, click here.
Click here to forward this mailing to a friend.

enriching our community

CLAYTON CENTURY FOUNDATION

A Monthly Newsletter for Friends and Supporters of the Clayton Century Foundation

Upcoming Events

After-Work Reception

Thurs., October 18
4:30pm - 6:00pm
Husch Blackwell
190 Carondelet Plaza, Suite 600

Mayor Linda Goldstein will present an update on strategic planning for the next 100 years. Clayton, Missouri: An Urban Story will be available.

RSVP Required:
sunlauf@claytonmo.gov

Book Signing & Morning Coffee

Sat., October 27
9:00am - 11:00am
Kaldi's at The Crescent

Meet & Greet author Mary Leonard, who will autograph her centennial book, Clayton, Missouri: An Urban Story.

Mascot of the Year

Nominations for Clayton's 2013 Mascot of the Year are open! Nominate your favorite furry friend (domesticated house pets only) to be in the running for the Centennial Mascot Campaign. For complete rules and regulations, visit the CCF website.

The Clayton Mascot of the Year campaign presents an opportunity for proud Clayton pet owners to enter their pets in the running for Clayton's Mascot of the Year. In addition to the City gaining a mascot, funds generated through the campaign will benefit the CCF. Voters will be charged $5 for each vote for the candidate of their choice; multiple votes are accepted. The winner will be announced at the All That Glitters event on Friday, December 7, 2012.

Voting will take place from October 29 - November 23, 2012.

All 2012 Mascot of the Year funds will be allocated towards Clayton's new Dog Park at Haddington Court. Click here to learn more about the new dog park.

Before donating, please review instructions on how to designate your contribution to the dog park fund and then click the blue "Donate Now" button on the CCF home page to proceed with your donation.

Author Presentation

Sat., November 10
10:00am
Mid-County Clayton Library -
Large Auditorium

Mary Leonard will speak about Clayton, Missouri: An Urban Story and answer questions. Families are welcome. Clayton Century Foundation History exhibit will be featured.

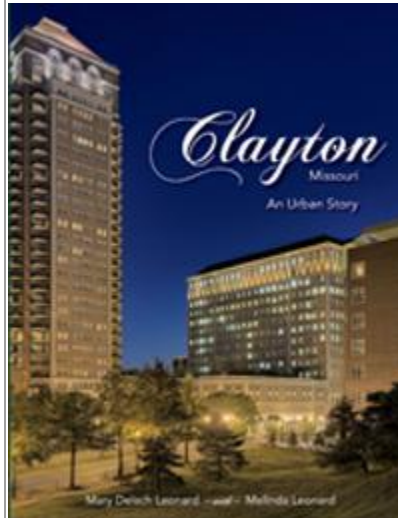

CCF History Speaker Series Presents Esley Hamilton

Thurs., November 15
7:00pm
Concordia Seminary
(Koburg Hall)

Esley Hamilton, St. Louis County Historian, will present on the Gothic Style architecture of Washington University and Concordia Seminary.

New History Books Available at The Center of Clayton

Copies of Clayton, Missouri, An Urban Story are available for purchase at The Center of Clayton for just $35.00.

This 128 page, richly illustrated coffee-table book tells Clayton's story from the very beginning, through newspaper reports, anecdotes, resident voices, timelines, and fun facts, plus photographs of nostalgic images of the city's past and modern community scenes.

For more information about this fine publication visit CCF's website.

Click here to view a video about Clayton's new history book.

Clayton's Year Long Centennial Celebration

Exciting plans for the 2013 Centennial Year continue to unfold. Please visit www.clayton2013.com for the very latest details.

Javier Mendoza Closes the Musical Nights Series

Oak Knoll Park was filled with music fans on Sunday evening, enjoying picnic dinners, friends, and family! Javier Mendoza, voted 2011 Best Male Solo Artist by the RFT, closed the musical series with a bang. Thank you to all who helped to make Musical Nights a big success! Special thanks to our sponsors: Chill, Chipotle, Crushed Red, Orange Leaf, and the St. Louis County Library.

Donate
Now

Become a CCF Member today! Your donation of any amount helps us to enhance our community.

Clayton Capital Projects made possible by the CCF

Clayton Century Foundation
10 N. Bemiston
Clayton, MO 63105